CONTACT INFORMATION-
Name, address, phone. Up to date, accurate information you need to make a grant request.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION-
Everything you need to find a "good fit" between your organization's needs and a funding source's funding priorities. Foundations which "give to preselected charities and generally do not accept unsolicited proposals" are indicated prominently with a special symbol: "c" next to Restrictions.

OVERVIEW INFORMATION-
Calculated from grants listings; totals sometimes different than "Program service" above (See "Fiscal information.") E/G Ratio shows expenses as a percentage of grants (program service) amount.

GRANTS BY CATEGORY-
Grant listings are organized by category, with average grant size per category and subtotals by percent and dollars within categories.

FUNDED PRIOR EDITION-
Bullets next to grantee listings show grantees which received a grant from the profiled foundation in prior editions of the DataBook.

CAPITAL GRANT-
Capital grants are indicated with a (c) symbol and there is an index of the foundations which made capital grants in the rear of the DataBook.

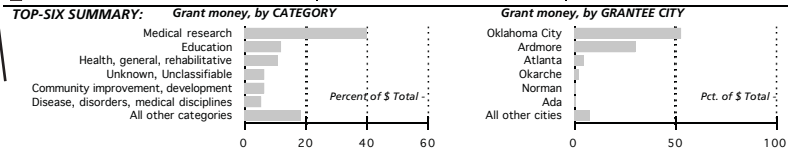

EVERY GRANT -
All the grants are listed for each foundation. Sure it was a lot more work, but it makes for a lot more valuable fundraising reference tool. Don't you agree?

Geographic Focus: Generally restricted to southwestern United States 501(c)(3) organizations, with primary emphasis in Oklahoma.
Deadlines: March 1st, June 1st, September 1st, December 1st.
Published Info:
Other Info: Requests are initiated with a letter addressed to Michael A. Cawley, President of the Noble Foundation. This letter should describe the requesting organization and the project for which the funds are sought. Initial grant requests are reviewed by the Director of Granting, Mary Kate Wilson. If the project falls within the foundation's current granting guidelines, the organization will receive a formal grant application. Most education related grants are funded through an employee matching grant program.

TYPE OF FOUNDATION-
Usually Independent (includes family foundations). Corporate or Public (includes community foundations).

REVIEWED/CORRECTED BY THE FOUNDATION-
Checkmark (✓) shows the foundation has reviewed / corrected the listing.

MORE INFO ON THE CD-
A mouse icon (Ⓜ) indicates biographical, financial or other information about the foundation is available on the CD (data that is not shown in the printed DataBook).

FISCAL INFORMATION-
Includes information from the latest 990 tax returns of each foundation: Total revenue; Program service (grants); Management & general (all expenses); and Fund balance (market value).

UNIQUE GRAPHIC PRESENTATION-
Charts show top categories for the grant money awarded by each foundation. After showing the top six categories (by percentage of dollars awarded), the display lumps all other grants together as "All other categories." Unique geographic charting of grant money by city gives a useful and clear picture of where the money goes.

NOTE- Some foundations make grant awards payable over several years or occasionally make an award which is payable in future years—what is shown in the DataBook is the amount actually paid during the year. Some foundations in Oklahoma make awards in two and three year commitments, and some of them publish excellent annual reports which provide this additional detail. Grantseekers should review annual reports when they are available.
